Factual report example ks2

Making great literacy lessons easy. Why join Plazoom? Description What's included? Teach children how to write engaging non-chronological reports with this KS1 text types resource pack. There are sheets to help pupils plan against success criteria, descriptions of what a non-chronological report should include, two detailed model texts and collections of facts about lions that children can use to create their own non-chronological reports. This primary resource includes 2 report model texts: Meerkats and Emperor Penguins These example non-chronological reports can be used to learn the features of this text type. They can be read and annotated by pupils, and a list of features to look for is included at the bottom of the page. Report writing sheet This contains a non-chronological report success criteria list as well as examples of conjunctions and adjectives that pupils can use in their own writing. Report writing plan This worksheet allows pupils to plan out their non-chronological report text. They could use information from the research sheet. Lion fact cards Pupils can use these to create their own non-chronological report about lions. They could organise information using the question cards before writing their report. Writing frames These writing frames can be used for pupils to present their work. What is a non-chronological report? A non-chronological report is a piece of text that isn't written in time order. They tend to be non-fiction, and they give information on subjects or events. Click through to see what this resource has to offer Year1 Year2 Year3 Year4 Year5 Year6 Join Plazoom today! I specialise in making PowerPoint presentations on a variety of topics including: Play-scripts, Ancient Greece, Harry Potter, The Tudors and Pirates. New resources are added fairly regularly. Focus on lessons, and series of lessons with bundle's aimed at being taught over a week or more with some worksheets and activities included. All reviews & feedback is welcome! Enjoy!Last updated25 February 2019Contains a Powerpoint which looks at what a non-chronological report is as well as looking at the features of non-chronological reports. Also includes examples of reports that children can use and highlight to practice identifying these features.
