Bray Wyatt debuted this theme song at SummerSlam 2019, and currently still uses it. Lyrics Yowie wowie Let me in Hurt, Heal Catching flies in his mouth Tasting freedom while he dares Then crawling back Back to the top Top of the stairs (of the stairs) He won't see the sun again for years to come He's broken out of love Hurt, Heal Like a cat without a care Roaming freely through the streets You can find him in amongst the pigeons in the square (in the square) He won't see the sun again for years to come He's broken out in Fear • Let Me In Community content is available under CC-BY-SA unless otherwise noted. What a unique honor. A wrestler's theme song is one of the most important things about their entire presentation. If a wrestler is not given the right song, everything about them can be thrown off. The right theme song sets things in the right mood and can give you a good idea of what you are about to see. Now one of the catchier songs going today has made a surprising list.Back in 2019, Bray Wyatt returned to WWE television with the Firefly Fun House, which became one of the most unique stories that WWE had presented in a very long time. Wyatt was now the host of something like a children's television show and even had his own puppet pals and running gags. While his Fiend alter ego would wind up getting the attention, another part of his new persona has received a bit of an honor. Billboard has released their first ever Top Hummed Songs of 2020, as calculated by the Google Hum To Search app. The app keeps track of any song sung, hummed or whistled for 10-15 seconds. Wyatt's Fiend theme song, Let Me In by Code Orange, made the list at #26. The song is used during the Fiend's matches rather than the version used as the Firefly Fun House theme song. Code Orange commented on the status:right in between "WAP", "baby shark", and "let it go""let me in" is the 26th @billboard @Google top hummed song of the year ?@WWEBrayWyatt @WWE pic.twitter.com/MheqFsbU49— Code Orange (@codeorange)th December 8, 2020The song is pretty awesome. Check out the matches it sets up:Opinion: This is the kind of thing that comes out of nowhere as Fiend's theme song is not exactly something that you expect to see on a list like this one. It really is a catchy song though and since it isn't used very often, it makes things all the more special. I could go for a few more Fiend matches, but at the same time you don't want it to be burned out in a hurry. Good for WWE and Code Orange here, as people seem interested in what the Fiend is doing.What do you think of the song? What is your favorite wrestling song?
